All Proposed Amendments to the Measure Are

Voted Down. Washington, Feb. 7.—By continuing as session to practically 7 o'clock the issues concluded all preliminary steps to the passage of the railroad rate hall, ordered roll call on the measure and put off final action until tomor-row at noon.

The time for amendment came at 4 clock and for three hours following deader and for three hours came up and was read, debuted in some instances, and went down to defeat. So fleree was the struggle to amend that often when a paragraph of the bill was concluded in the reading, a dozen appropriate waved, their amendments members waved their amendments and shouted for recognition.

None Adopted.

Not one of these were adopted. They contained all manner of propositions, such as regulating preferentials, long and short haul, free passes, court proand short haul, free passes, court pro-cedure, whole rate bills, and parts of bills. All went "by the board."

Previous to this exerting proceed-ings the house had been entertained for five hours by cratory of its best speakers. Cockran of New York gave his approval to the measure in an elaborate speech. Mr. Mann of Illi-paid followed, when the minute leadnois followed, when the minority lead-er.
